A. Survey Results

A lengthy discussion ensued about the preliminary findings of the Comprehensive Plan survey and how best to present those results in the final plan so they make the most sense and are understandable to the public. There was a particular focus in the discussion of the words respondents used to describe Folly Beach.

7: New Business

8: Staff Comments

Mr. Pope reviewed the work done during the Work Session. He stated the draft of the Needs & Goals section will be ready for the June 16 Planning Commission work session. He said the work for that section has been split among the commissioners. He encouraged the participation of City Council and the public in this very important section of the Comprehensive Plan.

9: Commission Comments

Mr. Robinson stated it is important to make the Comprehensive Plan a working document so it will be used and not just placed on a shelf.

10: Adjournment at 7:41pm.
